NO SHAM BATTLE; GROUNDS TOO WET

Big Feature of Week's Manoeuvres at Virginia Beach Is Called Off.

TROOPS ARE COMING HOME

First Companies to Entrain Are Those From Valley of Virginia.

Camp Harvey M. Dickson, Virginia Beach, Va., July 12.—Wet grounds further interfered with the work of the Virginia militiamen in their last day's battle between the First Regiment, on one side, and the Second and Fourth, on the other, was called off this morning after a consultation between Brigadier-General C. C. Vaughan, Jr., and the army officers delegated to the camp's instructors.

General Vaughan did not wish to pass over any of the work mapped out, but thought the surrounding country too deep under water to permit the men of the two regiments to work out the problem as it should be. He was sustained in this view by the four army officers, and the battle was called off.

However, the men did not spend an idle day altogether, for the sharpshooters put in several hours' work on the range and registered some good scores. This afternoon, beginning at 5 o'clock, the three regiments paraded before their respective colonels and staffs. This occupied about an hour, and the parade was witnessed by one of the largest crowds of the week. The Second Regiment, commanded by Colonel Robert F. Leedy, was followed by the First, under command of Colonel W. J. Perry. The Fourth, composed of the "tidewater" troops, and under the command of Colonel E. E. Goodwyn, wound up the day's program.

As fast as the regiments marched back to their quarters the companies composing them filed up to brigade quarters, where they were paid off by Lieutenant-Colonel Charles H. Consovo, paymaster of the Virginia National Guards.

Much to his own surprise, General Vaughan this afternoon made one of the best scores of the week on the range, qualifying over the 500 and 600-yard ranges. What made his good score the more remarkable is that he did not consider himself a rifleman at all, though he has been a good wing shot in the hunting fields for many years. Before to-day he had shot at the targets several times, but his success was so good this afternoon he would not at first believe it, declaring the scoring officials were trying to "kid" him.

On the 500-yard distance he made forty out of a possible fifty, and on the 600 his score was even better, registering forty-two out of a possible fifty. Out of the twenty-five marks he scored, including the trial shots, he put six through the bull's eye, twelve in the "four" space, three in the "three" circle, two in the two territory and one in the one.

The homeward movement started to-night at 5 o'clock, when a section of the Second Regiment entrained. Those leaving were the men of the Winchester, Warrenton, Leesburg and Strasburg companies. It was decided to advance the hour of breaking camp for the Valley troops on account of the long distance they have to go.

NEWS OF SOUTH RICHMOND

POLICE QUESTION RESTS

Board of Supervisors Will Not Reorganize Force Until After Election.
No action will be taken on the question of the reorganization of the Chesterfield police force by the Board of Supervisors at the regular monthly meeting to-morrow morning at Chesterfield Courthouse, but the matter will be laid over until after the local option election in Manchester District next Thursday.

The principal opponents of the reorganization are from Swansboro and vicinity, and they base their fight on the grounds that with three saloons in operation, it is necessary for the county to have a force larger than the present one, instead of cutting it down, as the proposed measure provides. They express themselves as willing to see a change if the liquor houses are abolished, but are bitterly opposed to a reduction in the number of officers if the present conditions will stand. The ballots for the election are now being printed and will be in charge of the election officials until the polling places open Thursday morning at sunrise. There will be three voting precincts. The largest of these is in Swansboro where the people of Forest Hill, Woodland Heights and Swansboro will cast their ballots. The next largest is Oak Grove, and the remaining one is at Mann's store on Broad Rock Road. In the congressional election, nearly 300 votes were cast.

OFFERED FINE POSITION

Rev. F. W. Long Is Called to the Presidency of Livingston Academy.
Rev. F. W. Long, pastor of Cowardin Avenue Christian Church, is considering a call to the presidency of Livingston Academy, Livingston, Tenn., which was tendered him recently. Two communications from the board of directors of the institution have been received during the past week by Mr. Long, but he has decided to take the call under consideration until the latter part of the month.

Mr. Long has been on the Southside for three years, coming here from Livingston, where he was a member of the academy faculty. His success in that position caused the directors to select him to succeed President Frederick Derchick, who retires from his position in a short while.

During his pastorate on the Southside, Mr. Long has made considerable progress in advancing his church, and is one of the best liked ministers in the city. He is held in high esteem by his congregation, and they are now considering petitioning him to decline the position.

Carrollian Is Heavily Soaked.
Pins aggregating $30 were collected yesterday morning from S. F. Ivey, a North Carolinian, who was arraigned before Justice H. A. Maurice, in Police Court, Part II, charged with being drunk and disorderly, trespassing on the premises of Reauegard Latham, relating and cursing Captain A. S. Wright. A charge of assaulting Mrs. Latham was withdrawn. Ivey is said to have been in a high state of intoxication. He gave his calling as that of merchant and lumber man.

Expect to Take Large Number.
From the advance sale of tickets, there is a strong probability that Central Methodist and Bainbridge Street Baptist Churches will carry down the largest crowd of any excursion during the present season. The Southside churches last year about equaled the record, and expect to do better Wednesday, when the joint picnic will be run. Ocean View is again selected by the excursionists.

Will Form Pollard Club.
Supporters of John Garland Pollard, candidate for Attorney-General of Virginia, will meet Tuesday night at 8 o'clock in the office of J. K. McCotter, Tunstall Building, for the purpose of organizing a club to work the Southside in his behalf. The meeting will be open to all of his friends. Plans for a mass meeting of voters will be discussed, and a date set for Mr. Pollard to make an address.

Case Dismissed.
Dr. H. L. Harris, the colored physician who was charged with failure to report the birth of a colored child whose mother was charged with infanticide, was dismissed when the matter came up before Magistrate Chambers at Swansboro on Friday. The case against the woman was dismissed on the recommendation of the Commonwealth's attorney. There was no charge of malpractice against Dr. Harris, and the other matter proved to be satisfactory and did not reflect upon his professional reputation.

Property Transfer Placed on Record.
A deed of bargain and sale showing the transfer of two pieces of property known as 316-308 West Seventh Street, with a frontage of thirty-five feet, from John B. Rose to S. A. Harwood, was recorded yesterday afternoon in Hustings Court, Part II. The consideration was placed at $10.

A building permit has been issued to Byrdner, Morris & Company, to erect a frame building at Twenty-first and Bainbridge Streets at a cost of $250.

W. C. T. U. Will Meet.
Fountain Union, W. C. T. U., will hold its regular monthly meeting to-morrow afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at Weatherford Memorial Baptist Church.

Personal Mention.
Miss Blanch Jeffries is visiting relatives in Baltimore.

Miss Helen Bucher is visiting her cousin, Mrs. H. L. Childress, of Everett Street.

S. T. Coverstone will leave to-morrow for New York on business.

is an earnest, mighty effort to clear counters and shelves in every department of every vestige of summer merchandise, and it is operated this season upon a more gigantic scale than ever before, because dealing with the heaviest and finest stocks ever offered at clearance prices. It means deep sacrifices and a heavy loss for us, just as it means correspondingly great savings and advantages for you. It is the expedient we employ semiannually for the sole purpose of prevention of carrying stocks from season to season, a rule which is maintained stringently and inviolate at this store, no matter what the loss or sacrifice. It is a sale which wearers of good clothes watch and wait for every season, hence the immense crowds that have attended it, assuring its success. Make your selections early, while stocks are at their best and assortments complete. Absolutely nothing gained by waiting. Join the crowds to-morrow.

BANKER BOWLDS IS NOT GUILTY

Jury Acquits Him on Charge of Making False Reports.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Raleigh, N. C., July 12.—A verdict of not guilty was rendered to-night in Wake County in the case against C. H. Bowlde, of Wilmington, secretary-treasurer of the States Trust Company, charged with false reports to the Corporation Commission. Two other cases against him—one for false entries as to stock of the Macleodfield Bank and the other for aiding and abetting Cashier Dimit Laffoon in similar entries as to the Bank of Clairmont—were called, and rather than have to give heavy bond for trial at the next court, pleas of nolo contendere were entered and prayer for judgment continued on the payment of the costs.

whiskey hereafter. Frank Hague, Commissioner of Public Safety, has discovered that the liquor sold in many of the local thirst parlors is impure and has caused numerous cases of the "D. T.s."

It developed to-day that for two weeks the commissioner has had fifty policemen in plain clothes, each armed with half-pint flasks, going the rounds of all the saloons getting whiskey samples. The samples were taken to the health board, where tests showed that not one of them contained anything near pure whiskey or whiskey fit to be sold.

"I am going to send these samples to the Health Department at Washington, also some of it to Trenton," said Commissioner Hague. "This will mean that about 100 saloons in this city will be minus a license when they apply for a renewal this month. We are going to have good whiskey or none at all."
